

Second Chance Learning

Improving Lives One Student at a Time

Second Chance Learning

Improving Lives One Student at a Time

John Vogel

443-474-0755

john.vogel@verizon.net

Second Chance Learning

Improving Lives One Student at a Time

Company Information

- Created in November 2006
- Geared towards improving lives through education and training
- Work with individuals who desire their High School Diploma
- Advise and help adults in search of advanced education and training

Qualifications

- GED Math Teacher at Helping Up Mission (since August 2005)
- Associates of Arts Human Services Chemical Dependency (target fall 2007)
- Maryland State Certified Teacher (target spring 2008)
- Masters of Science Electrical Engineering
- Bachelors of Science Physics
- Youth soccer coach
- Army veteran

Second Chance Learning

Improving Lives One Student at a Time

Services Provided

- GED and Pre-GED level mathematics classes and tutoring
- College and vocational school advising
- Financial aid advising
- Transcript and diploma locator services
- Recovering lost drivers licenses
- Anything related to education

Second Chance Learning

Improving Lives One Student at a Time

Results

- Second Chance Learning has helped
  - 20 students earn their high school diplomas.
  - 10 students apply for advanced education.
  - Provided 6 GED scholarships.

Second Chance Learning

Improving Lives One Student at a Time

Summary

- Second Chance Learning is there to help with educational needs
- SCL is willing to think out of the box to help students improve their lives
- SCL provides personalized attention
- SCL believes that knowledge is POWER!